ABOUT THE CHINESE MUSIC ENSEMBLE OF NEW YORK

A non-profit organization founded in 1961, the Chinese Music Ensemble of New York is the oldest full scale Chinese orchestra in the United States and Americas. Its present membership of about forty musicians play practically every type of Chinese music and instruments. Its repertory range from ancient classical to modern compositions spanning some fifteen hundred years of history. With the goal of promoting Chinese music, the Ensemble has performed in concerts at major concert halls in New York, in schools, colleges, libraries and museums throughout the Eastern seaboard.

About the Conductor:

JING-QIANG GUO is a graduate of Shanghai Conservatory of Music where he studied Erhu (two-stringed fiddle) with zhong-Le Wei, Xiu-Tong Lu and Jun-Ying Chen and has been a member of the Shanghai Orchestra, the Shanghai Philharmonic and Shanghai Traditional Chinese Music Orchestra. His tours in Japan and Singapore have won him wide acclaim. He is Erhu soloist and also serves as a conductor for the Chinese Music Ensemble of New York.
